

CAREER VALUES AUCTION ACTIVITY

Directions: The following statements are about work values (personal satisfaction a worker derives from a job). You may add additional work value statements if needed. You have $500 to spend on the values most important to you. You may bid on as few or as many as you want, up to $500.

1. Decide which one(s) you want.
2. Decide how much you will bid for the items you want.

	Amount I Budgeted	Amount I Bid
A job where I can experience competition and success.	_____	_____
A job that is structured; I leave at 5 p.m. and don't take work home.	_____	_____
A job where I can work part-time or have a flexible schedule.	_____	_____
A job where I work in an office most of the day.	_____	_____
A job where I work outside most of the day.	_____	_____
A job where I get ideas from bright, interesting co-workers.	_____	_____
A job where I can use my hands and see the product of my work.	_____	_____
A job where I can be my own boss.	_____	_____
A job where I can work with words, do a lot of writing, speaking.	_____	_____
A job where I get to travel.	_____	_____
A job where I can work with numbers.	_____	_____
A job where I can earn enough money to buy what I want most.	_____	_____
A job in an area of the country where I want to live.	_____	_____
A job where I can directly help people to better their lives.	_____	_____
A job where I can be creative and independent.	_____	_____
A job with a variety of tasks and new challenges.	_____	_____
Other	_____	_____